THE SISTERHOOD SCOOP

SEPTEMBER 28

Volume 7

Number 35

25 Elul 5784

September 28, 2024

NHBZ Sisterhood wishes everyone a healthy, happy, & sweet New Year!

There is still time to participate in Sisterhood's New Year Greetings Fundraiser for 5785

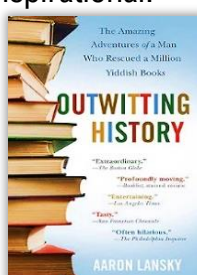

We invite you to wish L'Shana Tova Tikatevu to everyone in our NHBZ family! Send in your donation ($10 min / NO max) to NHBZ Sisterhood today and your name will be published in the next Shabbos or Yom Tov Bulletin. But hurry... time is running out...

CREATION (3760 BCE) – The 1st day of creation, on which G-d created existence, time, matter, darkness and light, was the 25th of Elul. (Rosh Hashanah, on which we mark "the beginning of Your works", is actually the 6th day of creation, on which the world attained the potential for the realization of its purpose, with the creation of the first man and woman, Adam and Eve. Rosh Hashanah is therefore the day from which the Jewish calendar begins to count the years of history; the 1st day of creation thus occurred on the 25th of Elul of what is termed -1 from creation.

Book Club Meets November 18

The Sisterhood Book Club will resume on Monday, November 18, 7:15-8:45 pm with the discussion of the book, Outwitting History: The Amazing Adventures of a Man Who Rescued a Million Yiddish Books, by Aaron Lansky, who makes searching for dusty old books exciting and even inspirational. Everyone is invited to attend the Nov. 18 meeting when we will investigate "Outwitting History" and also select the next books that we will read and discuss in January and March of 2025!

NITZAVIM-VAYEILECH: Standing Firm

This week's Torah reading begins Atem nitzavim, "You are standing here today, all of you... from the heads of tribes... to the woodcutters and water-drawers."

The commentaries explain that nitzavim in Hebrew means "standing firm." This verse teaches us that our standing firm is conditional upon it being all of you standing together. Each of us, from the highest to the lowliest, has our part to play and our own potential to fulfill.

The Talmud's Ethics of the Fathers tells us, "Who is rich? He who is happy with his lot." Rather than worrying about why we are not standing in somebody else's shoes, our task is to fulfill our potential at the level we are, in the situation where we are now, knowing that even if it may seem insignificant, each of us contributes on our own level and in our own way to the greater picture. In order to "stand firm" as a nation, we need the contribution of each person, on every level.

The story was told of Rabbi Aryeh Levin (known as "the tzaddik from Jerusalem") who informed the doctor that "my wife's leg is hurting us." This idea applies to all of us, as a community. When one person suffers, another feels the pain, even at a distance. When an event takes place in a distant country, this affects us as much as if it were to happen next door.

There is no "us and them." Anything which undermines decency and the sanctity of human life, the very fabric of our community, has an effect on all of us, whether we are directly involved or not. Each person needs to be intact, in order for us to achieve our communal potential. If one person is suffering or is otherwise affected by something, this has an impact on all of us.

START THE NEW YEAR WITH HUMOR

Who was the greatest financier in the Bible? Noah: he was floating his stock while everyone else was in liquidation.

My wife Miriam and I were happy for 20 years. Then we met.

Today my rabbi knocked at my door asking for a small donation to the local mikva. I gave him a glass of water.

Dear G-d, my prayer for this year is for a fat bank account and a thin body.
(Please don't mix these up like you did last year.....AMEN.)
